The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ*FED BY THE LORD

Jesus' words "This is my body" and "This cup is the new covenant in my blood" were only part of his table blessing. Jesus twice said: "Do this in remembrance of me" (1 Corinthians 11:24, 25).

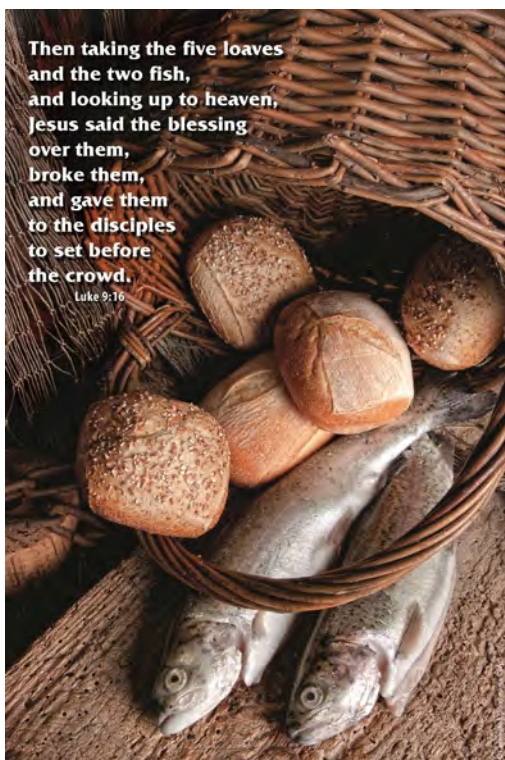

This is the good news of today's solemnity. Like the five thousand hungry souls, we are fed by our Lord. This is not food that satisfies for only a short time, until the next meal. It is food that lasts and changes us. It is food for sharing in much the same way as Melchizedek did when he brought bread and wine to the returning Abraham.

As children of God's reign, we are blessed to be able to receive and share God's gift. And we do so in the way most appropriate to our state in life--as parents, children, husbands, wives, or religious.      Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co.

Short Novena for Corpus Christi

O Lord Jesus Christ, You who have given us Your precious Body and Blood to be our meat and drink, grant that through frequent reception of You in the Holy Eucharist, I may be strengthened in mind and body to do Your holy will. Amen.

Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, have mercy on us.

Jubilee Year of MercySolemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi)*

In this Jubilee Year of Mercy, the Lectionary's Year of Luke presents a Gospel in which Jesus, who has welcomed, taught, healed, and shown God's mercy to the multitude, refuses the Twelve's demand to dismiss the crowd before him. Instead, he says, "Give them some food yourselves" (Luke 9:13). In Jesus' hands, what little the Twelve has feeds five thousand ("men," and probably as many women and children), leaving twelve baskets so the Twelve can continue Jesus' ministry of mercy. Pope Francis has asked how we celebrate and live the Eucharist. Do we keep it to ourselves? Or do we "commune" not only with Jesus but with the multitude whom Jesus has given us to cherish? Entrusted to Jesus and shared with others, our limited resources can go a long way. Recognizing Jesus in the Eucharist demands that we recognize Jesus also in the hungry crowd. Adoring Jesus present in the Eucharist requires that we serve Jesus present in our neighbor.

Spiritual Adoption Week 38

Hear me, O coastlands, listen, O distant peoples. The Lord called me from birth from my mother's womb he gave me my name. Isaiah 49:1

I wonder what great Saint I will be named after and strive to emulate? Soon my mom and dad will know what color my hair is? That is, if I have any hair at all. When I am born my hair may be an inch or more long or it may be fuzz! My skin is still shedding its lanugo, down-like covering. My skin is so soft and plump. The shed lanugo goes into my amniotic fluid. As I ingest this fluid, the lanugo, along with other waste products will become part of my first bowel movement. Get those diapers ready, Mom! Well all this is very exciting, but I really need to rest up for my birthday in two weeks. Please pray for a safe delivery for my mom and me.

Thank you.

BABY SHOWER Your Invited!!
LET'S CELEBRATE on June 12

The anticipated arrival of our babies is June 12, 2016. On that Sunday morning, we will have a baby shower after all Sunday Masses in the Parish Hall. Light refreshments will be served. Baked items needed. Help needed to set up and clean-up. Service hours given. Please bring your prayer squares, which will be crocheted together for baby blankets.

We would also appreciate donation for the mothers and babies at Good Council Home. In most need are:

- diapers (newborn to 24 months,)
- wipes, formula
- baby bottles
- developmental toys
- receiving blankets
- diaper bags

If you are unable to attend donations may be dropped off in Parish Hall before or after the 5PM Mass on Saturday, June 11th. Please call Lori Lettieri 732-291-2971 with questions.

Quo vadis...

My Dear Parishioners: Today we celebrate The Solemnity of The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ – Corpus Christi. The first reading relates the priest Melchizedek's bringing out gifts of bread and wine and blessing Abram. The last line of the reading records Abram's response: "Then Abram gave him a tenth of everything." Like Abram, we've been given many gifts, surely not least being the Eucharist. Our response, like Abram, must be to tithe ourselves, to share those gifts with others. We proclaim the death of the Lord when we are the "body that is for [others]." Death is in giving of ourselves. If we dare to share in the sublime gift of Jesus' Body and Blood, then we must also dare to die to ourselves and share our own abundance with others. Gift demands response. Sublime gift demands ultimate response—dying to ourselves so that we might share Eucharistic life with the world.

Etched in the base of the chalice my pastor presented to me on the occasion of my priestly ordination is: "Imitate the Mystery you Celebrate." How fitting this charge is for all of us, especially priests. I am so grateful to you, our faithful parishioners, for the way in which we pray the Mass here in our parish. It is the Work of God and the Work of the Faithful. It is not always easy and requires sacrifice from all. When we imitate the mystery of the Eucharist, every aspect of our lives is understood as sacrifice and thanksgiving. As stewards of our Time, Talent & Treasure, we give of our time and resources in response to God's Love for us and Jesus' sacrifice for us. May God continue to bless us so that we in turn might continue to be a blessing to others through our prayer, service and sharing.

June is the month when we observe the Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus; the Feast of Saint Anthony of Padua; the Solemnity of Saint John The Baptist and the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul. Please consult the parish bulletin for more particular details. We also honor our Fathers, Grandfathers and Godfathers for their vocation to marriage and family life. We also celebrate the achievement of those who graduate from school. Let us pray for these students, their teachers and mentors, and their families who support them in their endeavors. It is also a time for transitions in our parishes. We ordain new priests; name new pastors; transfer parochial vicars so that they might gain more pastoral experience prior to being considered for a pastorate.

Please join us for Mass on Memorial Day as we pray for all those who have given their life for the freedom we enjoy. The flag flies in our Grotto and Prayer Garden in honor of all those who have served, serve and will serve in the Armed Forces. Don't forget the Colts Neck Memorial Day Parade. It is a great community event. Preparations for our parish golf outing are well underway. If you have not purchased your Summer Social Dinner Tickets, you may do so online. Come and be part of the tradition, have some fun, meet new parishioners and re-ignite friendships with others. Have a great week and enjoy these Spring/Summer Days. Let us pray for one another. Buona Domenica. Peace. Father Jeff
