Georgian Court University and the Center for FaithJustice invite you to apply for the

MercyworX Institute

June 25–30, 2017

on the GCU Lakewood Campus

IMMERSE YOURSELF in a unique experience of theological inquiry and vocational exploration! MercyworX is a one-week residential campus experience, with additional online coursework, designed to provide high school students with a unique opportunity to examine moral and ethical dimensions in their contemporary lives through the study of Catholic social teaching, conduct service work with a local organization, and reflect upon these experiences in a retreat-style format.

Together with a leadership team from the Center for FaithJustice, participants will work with Georgian Court University faculty, students, staff, and administration throughout the program and earn 3 college credits.

Admission to this program is open to rising seniors and exceptional rising juniors.

Tuition & Fees	$1,000
Application Deadline	May 1, 2017

Space is limited, and early applications will receive priority consideration.
